Again, five. After a month of resignations and appointments, the Carmel City Council sat down five at the table when they assembled for the regular monthly meeting last night.

Opening the swing door to the platform at city hall where the council presides, is John Chitwood; behind him, Allen Knight, appointed to replace Horace Lyon, who resigned October 1 for health reasons; behind Mr. Knight, Everett May, appointed to replace Francis Whitaker, who resigned because he didn't agree with Mr. Knight's appointment; next to Mr. Knight, Carl Patnude, and finally Jim Buffington.

After Mr. May took oath of office (Mr. Knight was sworn in at last month's meeting) the council reorganized, selecting John Chitwood mayor and Carl Patnude vice-mayor.

Mayor Chitwood asked James Buffington to continue as street commissioner and Carl Patnude as fire commissioner. Allen Knight accepted the police commission, Everett May, the commission of health and safety.

Army To Stage Helicopter Rescue For Veterans Day

Carmel will not have a Veterans Day nee Armistice Day celebration of its own this year, since Carmel High School will not play the "Big Game" with Pacific Grove on the home field. On alternate years, there are Armistice Day ceremonies here preceding the game.

The Army will celebrate with a parade on Monday in Monterey starting at 10:00 o'clock in the morning. The Fort Ord Band will give a concert at El Estero in Monterey between 2:00 and 3:00 o'clock. Preceding the concert there will be a display of equipment and weapons on the lawn adjacent to El Estero, also a helicopter rescue at 1:15, and an animal exhibit in the form of the Army Mule.

SURF AND SAND HEARING

Notice was received this morning that the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board will hold a public hearing on the amended application of Paul E. Chedester and Robert A. Aebersold for transfer of off sale liquor licence to Torres and Sixth.

The hearing is called for November 19 in the Council Chambers of city hall at 10:00 o'clock in the morning.

Art Triumphs, Abernethy, Josselyn Win Council Over To Brick Walks, Ouster Of Ugly Drinking Fountain

Two of Carmel's most persuasive citizens appealed to the city council to preserve the beauty of the library grounds, at the meeting last night, and the council succumbed, to the delight of everybody present.

John Abernethy, chairman of the library board, asked the council to approve brick, rather than the black top they had chosen, as material to pave the library garden walks.

Writer Talbert Josselyn expressed the shock of Carmel citizens at the recent placement of a white porcelain drinking fountain at the junction of the library walks, directly in front of the sun dial, an unwelcome point of interest in the landscape design.

"It looks like a lighthouse without the utilities of a lighthouse," said Mr. Josselyn. "It gleams white like some indoor fixture, like a wash basin, like a toilet."

In the days when the town had more sense of humor, he continued, citizens would have torn it up in the night and replaced it with the last-named bathroom fixture, and then asked the street department, "How do you like it? What are you going to do about it?"

Some attention should be given to aesthetic effect, he concluded. "In a rising tide of mediocrity, let us try to keep our heads above the flood."

Clerk Larry Rose told the council that the planning commission had taken exception to the placement of the drinking fountain at its meeting that afternoon, and had asked why the landscape design committee had not been consulted.

Hazel Rider, in the audience, said that the fountain is of outmoded construction, is dangerous, and should be junked.

The council agreed to the relocation of the fountain under the

Nobody Protests At Planning Board's Ordinance Hearing

After no one appeared yesterday afternoon to protest at the planning commission public hearing on the three ordinances governing construction in the business zones, the commission proceeded to alter the ordinances, before sending them back to the council next Wednesday afternoon.

Commission asked City Attorney John Morse to prepare amendments as follows:

1. The first ordinance demanding two percent of a building site area shall be open space for the purpose of landscaping, and 50 percent of this area in public view was changed to 100 percent must be seen by the public. Also the commission may vary any setback or open space, etc., requirement up to 50 percent instead of the 25 percent stated in this ordinance.

2. The second and third ordinances specifically state that no building be erected or altered in the business zone unless the commission approve besides land use, appearance, off-street parking, loading zones, setbacks, and open spaces for landscaping.

Commissioners indicated that next Wednesday they would officially recommend that the council adopt either of the first two ordinances and discard the third which is re-adoption of the existing zoning ordinance.

Council Rejects Petition That 2 Members Resign

A petition signed by 22 names, asking that two newly-appointed city council members, Allen Knight and Everett May (Thomas E. May, Jr.) resign before the April elections "to allow themselves to file legally as candidates for election" instead of serving out their appointed term to 1960, was presented to the city council at its meeting last night.

Concours d'Elegance And Road Races This Week End

The National Championship Pebble Beach Road Races will be held this weekend at the new course at Laguna Seca.

The course, completed last week, guarantees thrills to fans and drivers alike throughout the entire two-mile circuit. Designed as an acute test of a driver's skill, the 30-foot, paved track will be almost entirely visible from the spectator area.

The program calls for technical inspection and registration at race headquarters, Foreign Motors of Monterey, 777 Del Monte Avenue, from 2:00 to 8:00 o'clock Friday and 8:00 to 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning.

At 12:15 o'clock Saturday there will be a compulsory drivers' meeting on the start-finish line at the course. Practice will follow, then at 2:30 o'clock 5-lap qualifying races for starting positions in Sunday's races will begin.

On Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. the Concours d'Elegance will take place on the lawn at Del Monte Lodge, Pebble Beach.

Sunday, the first race will start at 10:30 a.m. when production cars in classes G and F will grind out 20 laps. At 11:15 a.m., a similar race will be run for classes E and above in the production category.

The Pebble Beach Cup Race is slated to begin at 1:00 p.m. The race is for modified machines in classes H, G and F, and will be 50 laps, or 100 miles.

The Del Monte Trophy Race will follow at 3:00 o'clock. The latter will involve modified cars in classes E and above, and will be for 100 miles also.

Planning Commission Protests Eye-sore Drinking Fountain

Planning commissioners yesterday afternoon, after Commissioner Florence Josselyn indignantly pointed out to them the inappropriateness of the white drinking fountain recently placed in the grounds of Harrison Memorial Library, blocking a beautiful sundial from public view, asked City Clerk Larry Rose to remind the council last night that the planning commission had a landscaping committee to approve appropriateness of such an installation and also an art association in the community willing to help keep Carmel beautiful. The commission decided to ask the council to remove the fountain.

"There's also our land use committee," quipped Commissioner Hugh Smith, "if the council would like their help, too."

Mayor John Chitwood and Councilmen Carl Patnude and James Buffington refused to regard the petition as coming under legitimate council business. Councilmen May and Knight remained silent.

"We are opposed in principle to any person holding the office of city councilman who has not been duly elected to that office, except only on an interim basis," the petition stated in part.

Councilman Patnude commented: "This purports to object in principle that members can be appointed to serve the full term. The principle isn't one we have established; it was established by the State of California. If they think the principle is wrong, they should petition the state legislature to change the law."

Council procedure, including appointments, is set forth by the legislature for cities of the fifth class, such as Carmel.

"It is unfortunate that the petitioners should have taken this means of embarrassing the new councilmen who have consented to serve though they stand to gain nothing but hard work and criticism. This petition has no place in the city council," Mr. Patnude concluded.

"I agree with Mr. Patnude," said Councilman Buffington. "It is well (Continued on Page Four)"

Council To Start Master Plan Study On Wednesday Night

The city council decided last night to study the master plan for Carmel when it meets Wednesday night at 8:00 o'clock to receive the planning commission's recommendation for a revised interim ordinance.

They accepted Mrs. J. E. McPherson's gift of redwood seedlings to the city.

Decided to discuss with the planning commission hiring Plant Pathologist Harry Lachmund to diagnose and treat ailing pines;

Approved removal of two pines at Ocean and Monte Verde;

Asked the committee to restudy the major street improvement plan;

Instructed the city attorney to draw up a resolution indicating the city's endorsement of the possible location of a University of California branch on the Monterey Peninsula.

COM. CHEST PROGRESS

Carmel has contributed to date 80.6 percent of its $29,000 Community Chest quota. Business district returns have not increased much over last week's 63 percent of quota, reports Brayton Withereil, Chest executive secretary. Residence area returns are in advance of last year.

PADRES WIN TWO AT KING CITY

Carmel High's varsity and junior-varsity football squads won a pair of league games at King City last Friday night but the Red & Gray gridders knew they had been through rugged competition when the games were over. Coach Fred Rainer's classy junior-varsity crew scored early in the first quarter and hung on for a narrow 7-0 squeaker and the Padre varsity finished in front, 25 to 6.

Behind the crisp blocking of Mal Burdis, Bill Hicks and Hal Gregerson, the Carmel varsity running attack riddled the left side of the Mustang line as Andy Gray powered for three touchdowns and Ted Smith turned the corner for another. Pulling a Stanford at the conversion line, the Padres made good on only one out of four chances as the hard-charging King City line poured the pressure on the kicker. Carmel got on the board early in the second quarter when a series of end runs by Ted Smith and off-tackle power plays by Andy Gray moved the ball to the 22-yard line where Andy Gray ate up the rest of the distance in one play. Ted Smith's conversion was low and the Padres were in front, 6 to 0. The Padres stuttered and sputtered until near the end of the half when they hit for a quick six after Smith had intercepted a Mustang aerial on the King City 35-yard line. Two off-tackle shots by Gray moved the ball to the 7 where Smith picked up the rest around right end. Smith's conversion was true this time, and halftime intermission found the Padres leading, 13 to 0.

King City's stubborn defense throttled the Padres for most of the third quarter until a screen pass from Tim O'Shea to Andy Gray unlocked the door for a 38-yard touchdown. Smith's attempted pass for the conversion was knocked down and the scoreboard read, 19 to 0. After the kickoff, the hard-trying King City squad hit for a touchdown in one big chunk as halfback Pat Curran found a wide gap through the Padre left tackle spot and sprinted 52 yards for a six-pointer. The conversion attempt was wide and the Padres were leading, 19 to 6, as the fourth quarter got underway. The Mustangs threatened again midway of the final period when they blocked a Padre punt and moved to the Carmel 35-yard line. However, Ted Smith, a demon on pass defense all night, intercepted a Mustang aerial and ran it back to the Blue & White 15-yard line. From here, it was easy for Andy Gray to take the familiar off-tackle route for the final Carmel touchdown.

Good blocking up front, especially by the right side of the Padre line and pulling guard, Mal Burdis, provided big running lanes in the King City defense and paved the way for the Padre power plays. Bill Hicks and Hal Gregerson had the big King City tackles on the ground most of the night while the fast explosive blocking of Mike Raggett and Neil Giarratana wiped out the left guard. Parker Pollock, Carmel's sturdy center who played the entire game, was a bulwark on both offense and defense. The big pivot-man is improving with every game and is now rated the best center in the league.

Carmel's junior-varsity had a narrow squeak with the big Pony squad and had to nurse Ron Faia's first-quarter touchdown for the 7-0 win. Used to getting touchdowns in bunches, the talent-loaded jayvees were up against an inspired team at King City and had to put on their best defensive performance to keep their goal line unsullied. A tremendous goal line stand near the end of the first half saw the Padrecitos stop the Pony crew on four successive shots from the 2-yard line. Big Doug McClurg, Van Treat and the Wilkin twins bore the brunt of the King City attack as the Red & Gray line gave up only a yard and three-quarters.

The second half of the junior-varsity tilt was a stirring defensive battle with both teams threatening to score but neither having the guns to riddle the inspired defenses thrown against them. Meeting tough competition was a welcome change for the high-flying jayvees and puts them in the

BIG GAME AT PACIFIC GROVE FRIDAY NIGHT

It's "Big Game" night at Pacific Grove this Friday when the Carmel Padres and Pacific Grove Breakers meet to decide the CCAL B-division football championship. Usually played on Veteran's Day, this year's grid natural was moved to a Friday night game in order that make-up games could be played next week. As in the varsity game, the junior-varsity preliminary tilt will determine the league winner as both teams are undefeated in league play. Tomorrow night's jayvee game starts at 6:00 o'clock with the varsity fray slated for an 8:00 o'clock starting time.

A win for the Breakers tomorrow night will assure the Red and Gold of at least a tie for the league crown and an outright title if Hollister beats the Padres on November 15. If the Padres can finish in front, the championship is theirs and the outcome of the Hollister game will have no bearing on the flag race. Season records indicate the game as even-up with Pacific Grove rating the edge in speed and passing and Carmel with more power up front and slightly stronger on the defense. Using the Gilroy game as a guide, Pacific Grove clipped the strong Mustangs, 19 to 6, while Carmel blanked Gilroy, 20 to 0. However, undefeated seasons, previous scores and individual performances mean little in the "Big Game" as both teams reach a high pitch and players often play over their heads to far excel previous performances. Pacific Grove holds wins over Junipero Serra (32-12), Gilroy (19-6), Gonzales (20-0), Live Oak (forfeit), and Hollister (20-18). Only losses suffered by the Breakers this season were to King City (13-0) and St. Elizabeths (6-0). Carmel has had an undefeated season so far with wins over Gustine, Monterey Reserves, Live Oak, Gonzales, Gilroy and King City.

Pacific Grove's backfield of Jim Edison, Danny Aiello, Ron Tomasini and Dick Adams is one of the most feared in the league, being well-equipped with speed, power and passing ability. Edison is rated the best forward passer in either the A or B leagues and he has two 6-3 ends, Rene Vit and Vernon Gardner, to receive his tosses. Led by Art Drummond and Walt Wardle, the Breaker forward wall averages over 185 projects is a study of 125 children whom Mr. Sheviakoff has followed from infancy through adolescence. This study was conducted by the Institute of Child Welfare, University of California.

Guidance and counseling have occupied an important place in Mr. Sheviakoff's career, and his publications War and Adolescents and Discipline for Today's Children and Youth have aided in spreading his popularity in this field.

A short question and answer period will follow Professor Sheviakoff's talk.

election you agree to serve. When I took that pledge, I took it seriously."

Members of the audience concluded the mayor was referring to Francis Whitaker who resigned from the council last month because he did not agree with the rest of the council in the appointment of Mr. Knight.

Although Mr. Whitaker did not sign the petition, he has expressed the opinions embodied in it, and it was originated by his supporters.

The Petition:

"We, the undersigned registered voters of the City of Carmel, are greatly disturbed by the change in the City Council, due to the recent resignations and appointments. We are opposed in principle to any person holding the office of City Councilman who has not been duly elected to that office, except only on an interim basis. The two recent appointments are not interim, but extend instead to the year 1960. Public reaction to these appointments indicates that the two appointed members do not enjoy full public approval, and that their appointment deprives the public, to a large extent, of the right to be represented by people of their own choosing.

"We, therefore, wish to request that the recently appointed members of the City Council, ALLEN KNIGHT and THOMAS E. MAY, Jr., resign as Council members, without prejudice, on an appropriate date in 1958 to allow themselves legally to file as candidates for election to the offices they now hold by appointment, at the next regular election for Council, the Municipal Election on April 8th, 1958. We also wish to request that the City Council accept these two resignations and declare vacancies for the remainder of the unexpired terms, running until 1960, so that any other qualified candidates may present themselves to the voters.

supervision of the landscape committee and the library board.

Mayor John Chitwood asked that when anything arises that the planning commission thinks is in its province, "please inform me. We did not mean to short-circuit the planning commission."

The council told Mr. Abernethy that brick walks cost $1,100, black top $250.

"A matter of a few dollars," said Mr. Abernethy. "Supposing it cost $2,000 more." He quoted library circulation figures to show how many people pass along the library walks. He spoke of the loveliness and permanence of old brick walks he had seen in Mexico. "The library is a beautiful building, in the center of town. It is important that the walks be properly laid and in harmony with the building and the grounds."

Clerk Larry Rose said that he had received $115 donations from citizens to help make up the difference in costs between blacktop and brick. Building Inspector Floyd Adams said members of the audience had pledged 250 bricks. (He'd sent circulating a spur of the moment pledge sheet while Mr. Abernethy was talking.)

"I think we should be guided by the wishes of the people," said Councilman Carl Patnude, and it was decided that bids would be sought for laying brick walks.

Announces Program
For Sun. Concert

Gilbert Boyer, Peninsula pianist with an international background of concert tours, has announced the program which he will present at his concert in Sunset Auditorium at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Fantasia in C Minor, Bach; Etudes, Opus 10, Chopin; Numbers 1 through 10; The Three Marias, Villa-Lobos; and Sonatina, Ravel.

Many of the Etudes are known by the subtitles given them after Chopin's death. Number 1 is frequently called The Runaway Chorale; Number 5, Black Key Etude; Number 12, Revolutionary Etude. The Villa-Lobos Three Marias were inspired by a Brazilian children's story of three little Brazilian girls who were gay friends on earth and continued their association as stars to illuminate paths for other children.

Gilbert Boyer is well qualified to interpret the music of Ravel as he has made an intensive study of the latter's work under the guidance of Paul Duguereau, noted French pianist and close friend and associate of Ravel.

LEWIS HOSKINS, SPEAKER

European work of the American Friends Service Committee and a unique demonstration project at San Quentin prison will be the subject of the fall meeting of the Quaker agency on the Monterey Peninsula. The public is invited to attend the afternoon session beginning at 4:00 o'clock and the evening meeting at 7:30 on Saturday, November 9 at the Women's Civic Club in Pacific Grove. Potluck supper will be served at six.

Featured evening speaker will be Lewis Hoskins, national secretary of the American Friends Service Committee who will describe what the AFSC has been doing in Europe since the Hungarian revolt.

In the afternoon Kathleen Regan, who returned in October from Yugoslavia where she has worked with Hungarian refugees for the AFSC under the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, will speak. Also speaking will be Bodill Nielson, Danish social worker, who has been conducting an AFSC experiment of inmate and family rehabilitation for San Quentin prison.

Mr. Bela H. Banathy of the Hungarian Department, Army Language School, will preside.

CHERRY FOUNDATION
CHILDREN'S CLASSES

The Carl Cherry Foundation in Carmel announces resumption of free children's classes in acting under the direction of Charlotte Perry, Perry-Mansfield School of Theatre and Dance, Steamboat Springs, Colorado.

As part of its educational program in the Arts, the Cherry Foundation invites children between the ages of 9 and 13 to apply for scholarships Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock, at the Foundation, Fourth and Guadalupe Streets, Carmel. Applicants will be chosen on the basis of talent and serious interest in an informal interview with Miss Perry. Previous experience is not a requirement, and the class is open to all races and creeds.

Actual theatre experience will be gained in the production of The Second Shepherds' Play scheduled for public performances during the Christmas season. This year the classes will go beyond the one production and continue as a study group for the full 1957-58 winter season. For further information telephone Mayfair 4-7491.

Letters . . .

October 30, 1957
Editor, The Pine Cone:

Some Pine Cone reader, anonymously, is seeking to educate me. I get letters, unsigned, with newspaper clippings that express views contrary to mine. I appreciate the service; but yesterday came an amusing letter.

Enclosed was a Pine Cone clipping about my advocacy, on August 23, that we take a two year vacation from bomb making and testing. I said we could do this without sacrifice of our security since we already had bombs capable of destroying Russia, were we attacked. Also enclosed was a clipping from the Wall Street Journal of August 23. It objected editorially to a decision just made by the government to agree to a two year, atomic vacation under certain conditions. The Journal objected to this, in these words:

"A two year breathing spell might give the Russians a chance to catch up in their basic research, which can go on without actually shooting off bombs. At our stage of development a two year suspension might break the momentum to such an extent that we would lose all of our lead time over the Communists."

Since then Russia has successfully launched the first intercontinental missile, tested the first atomic missile warhead, and launched sputnik. Our "time lead" didn't exist. It was the other way around.

In my statement in the Pine Cone, I said, "Russian engineers, like ours, are putting the finishing touches on intercontinental missiles which, very soon, will be aimed from man-made satellites, circling the world at incredible speeds." That appeared on August 8.

The tragedy, right now, is that we are bending every effort to outdo the Russian missiles, H-bomb warheads and satellite; still sticking to the old belief that if only we can make more destructive weapons than the Russians, we shall be secure. It is perfectly obvious that the Russians will make still worse weapons, in such a case, until just two commands can end human existence in our country and in Russia. The result will be the same whether it is a Russian or American who gives the first command.

When, I wonder, will we recognize that arms never again can give us security. When will we begin to spend time, money and thought planning GOODWILL?

ZENAS L. POTTER

Saturday, November 2

Dear Wilma:

In your last issue the following appears: "William Overstreet, Pine Cone editor . . . in the November 1 issue suggests 'Order repair of unsafe sidewalks.'"

Actually it was several years later before that matter, which was addressed to the City Council, was attended to and that attention coincided with my arrival in the Village-by-the-Sea.

With that foresight and vision characteristic of true genius, it occurred to me that those sidewalks of Carmel were inflammable!

During the chemical change, as flames rose even into the chimney, it was observed that not only warmth but even an aesthetic beauty existed within those curling tongues, and great joy was derived.

And Nature took a hand in the repairs; for what is more pleasant than to tread upon Good Mother Earth!

There still remains the signature to be added.

For the moment let it be

The Guy who did it.
P.S. There still remain a few

Shaw's Candida Opens Friday At Circle Theatre

Judging by the phenomenal success My Fair Lady, George Bernard Shaw is anything but a back number. One of his controversial plays, Candida, presented by the Golden Bough Players at the Circle Theatre, opens Friday, for a six weeks' Friday through Sunday run.

Playing the lead as Candida is Peg Miner. Candida's husband, Morrell, is played by Errol Allan. Ramon Wilson portrays Marchbanks, fiery young poet and Can-beings who will probably appreciate the solution of this mystery.

Editor's note: Look, Smartie, from the internal evidence in your letter we could find out who you are by scouring the Pine Cones of 1917. Why not save us the trouble and reveal your identity?—W.C.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian

Aloha, and similar Polynesian greetings! There is always one nice thing about going on a trip and that is the wonderful way Carmel looks to you after your return. You ask yourself how you could have endured leaving in the first place.

With winter just around the corner, the time has come for a renewed interest in cooking. So we have three new cookbooks, each one aimed at a different cooking situation. The first is a book by Ida Bailey Allen entitled Cook Book for Two. This is a revised edition of her famous Food for Two. It is aimed at the cook who prepares meals for a small family, and should be of special interest to brides. Then for the connoisseur of cookery we have the Real French Cookery by Courtine who writes under the pseudonym of Savarin. His creed is that simplicity is the badge of perfection and that this applies to cooking as well as every other creative task. This is cooking for the epicure. Finally, for the specialist in outdoor cooking we have the Sunset Magazine's Barbecue Cook Book. Like other Sunset books, this one is replete with photographs and diagrams to help you in attaining the perfect barbecue, and just looking at the pictures is a stimulant to the appetite.

For travellers both real and arm-chair, we have two new outdoors books, the one an Introduction to Mountaineering by George Alan Smith, and the other Dawn in Arctic Alaska by Diamond Jenness. Now you can sit close by the fire and still climb mountains.

The Three Worlds of Albert Schweitzer by Robert Payne is an attempt to relate the life of the great man to his three worlds, that of music, medicine, and theology.

A new book on the mentally ill is entitled Home Care for the Mentally Ill and was written by Herman Schwartz. One thing which may prove of special value in the book is his discussion of when to keep the patient at home and when special institutional care is a necessity. The author emphasizes all through the book that no person should assume the care of a mentally sick patient without the expert advice of a doctor. Libraries never stock books which attempt to substitute for adequate medical or legal advice.

Living as we do in a part of the world which is susceptible to earthquakes, we added a recent book by G. A. Eiby which is entitled About Earthquakes. This is the non-technical side of earthquakes and contains the answers to many of the questions the interested citizen asks about them. There are eight new novels, including the last from Kathleen Norris, and also the new one about San Francisco called North of Market which was written by Arthur Foff. Come and get 'em.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel MA 4-3881.

Guild After Concert Party

Blithe relaxation from successful accomplishment was the keynote of the reception given by the Symphony Guild at the Carmel Art Association Gallery after the first Carmel concert this season of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra on Monday night. Director Gregory Millar and his 70 players were guests of honor with soloists James Schwabacher and Joseph Axup. Invited to share the occasion with the musicians were members of the Guild, active, sustaining, patron and life members of the Symphony Association and the members of the Symphony Association board.

Musicians were happily relaxing after their best attended concert to date, both here and in Salinas; guild members from money raising efforts and board members and Symphony supporters from a successful ticket and organizational campaign.

Mutual congratulations were extended while the two hundred or so guests sipped champagne or punch and reminisced, sometimes wryly, over incidents which occur in the maintenance of a Symphony in Monterey County.

Receiving congratulations for an unscheduled solo performance was orchestra manager Edwin J. Trinker who appeared on stage during a brief intermission between numbers to ask "Is there a clarinet player in the house?"

Director Gregory Millar had delayed the concert as long as possible waiting for a missing clarinetist, bassoonist and viola player. After the first number he still lacked his three players even after frantic telephone efforts to reach them. Orchestra manager Trinker heard there was a fine clarinetist in the audience and made his impassioned plea from the stage to no avail, and with no applause until the reception when he was highly honored by conductor, players and board for his unrehearsed and brave appearance. Mr. Trinker maintains there will be no repeat performance, he prefers moving pianos behind scenes.

Helping their wives "pop" champagne corks and serve guests were the following husbands of Guild board members, Leo Ross, Robert McKeever, Jr., Douglas A. Graham, Loran List, Jack J. Miller and Burton McK. Doolittle, husband of the Guild's president. The punch table was in charge of Miss Georgia Plummer Lyke and Mrs. Edwin J. Trinker. Guild members assisted Mrs. Doolittle in greeting the guests and serving food.

Glen Has Hallowe'en Birthday

Glen Orval Mead, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Mead, has many gay costumed birthday parties ahead of him in life as he was born on Hallowe'en night, October 31 at the Peninsula Community Hospital. He weighed seven pounds, 12 ounces at birth and has been given his father's two names in reverse order.

Mrs. Effie Mead, longtime Carmelite, is one of Glen's proud and happy grandparents and the others are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kenna of Olympia, Washington. Mrs. Kenna arrived here on Monday to welcome her grandson when he arrived home from the hospital with his mother, and plans to remain in Carmel for two weeks.

Glen's father is a graduate of the Carmel Schools and is looking forward to having his son grow up as a third generation Carmelite.

Mrs. Stilwell Tea Honor Guest

This afternoon Mrs. Joseph W. Stilwell of Carmel is one of seven past presidents of the Presidio of San Francisco Woman's Club to be honored at an anniversary tea in the ballroom of the Presidio Officer's Club. The Chamber Players of San Francisco will provide music for the occasion, and the honored guests are being presented with corsages and a candle-lit anniversary cake is to be cut, marking the thirty-eighth birthday of the group.

Mrs. Stilwell was president of the Presidio Woman's Club in 1946 when her husband, the late General Stilwell, was stationed at the Presidio of San Francisco as commander of the Sixth Army.

Carmelites Climb Popocatepetl

Mr. F. W. Titus returned from Mexico City on Friday. While in Mexico Mr. Titus "walked up" volcanoes Mount Ajusco, just under 14,000 feet and Popocatepetl, almost 18,000 feet high.

"I didn't quite get to the summit of Popocatepetl," reports Mr. Titus, "as I wore hiking boots and the last few hundred feet of the mountain were so slippery with snow and ice that I needed spiked shoes to complete the climb to the edge of the crater."

However, he was just below the volcano's smoke when he stopped his seven hour walk and felt that was ample reward for his necessarily slow efforts in the thin air at that altitude.

An international congress of physicians and surgeons was meeting in Mexico City during the time Mr. Titus was there and among the 26 German delegates to the meetings he found several who knew his relatives in Germany and enjoyed talking with these doctors about his family and former homeland. Mr. Titus proudly received his United States citizenship last year.

David Barrows Honor Graduate

Mr. and Mrs. Barrows, David's parents, came from Orinda to live in Carmel in August. Mr. Barrows is retiring as associate director of the University of California extension program as soon as a replacement is found for him. He is the son of General David P. Barrows, former president of the University of California.

Four Girls In Hudson Family

Janet Grace Hudson, fourth daughter of Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. G. D. Hudson, was born on October 29, her oldest sister Katherine's tenth birthday. Her two other sisters are Nori, seven, and Laurie, four, who is busy being "mother's helper" since her new sister came home from the Peninsula Community Hospital.

Lieutenant Commander Hudson has completed a course at the Line School and is now an aerological engineering student at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School.

"Which means we are having three wonderful years in Carmel," says Mrs. Hudson.

Janet weighed eight pounds, three and a half ounces when she was born. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Moffitt of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Mrs. Myrtle Atkins of Los Angeles.

Attends Wisconsin Conference

Thomas Chester Madden of Carmel Valley, sales representative for Bonestell and Company, San Francisco paper distributors, attended a conference last week in Neenah, Wisconsin, arranged by the Kimberly-Clark Corporation of that city. The 100 men from paper distributing companies throughout the country at the conference were interested in a visit to the corporation's mill at Kimberly, Wisconsin, and in seeing Kimberly-Clark's new multi-million dollar coated printing paper machine.

Josette Clavier, pictured above, is a member of the Ballets Janine Charrat appearing in Sunset Auditorium on November 19 under the auspices of the Carmel Music Society. Guiding genius of the ballet is Janine Charrat herself, founder, prima ballerina and chief choreographer of the dance group.

Since the age of twelve, when she was the child star of the film Ballerina, Mlle. Charrat has had an unusually successful career which culminated in the formation of her own company in 1952. Each of the 14 members of the virtuoso dance group is a highly accomplished artist and their performances have been acclaimed for zest, brilliance and remarkable repertoire, both in Europe and on tour in the United States.

Eric Rogge Born

Mr. and Mrs. Hans E. Rogge are parents for the first time. Their son Eric Thomas was born on October 28 in the Peninsula Community Hospital. His birth weight was seven pounds, 13 ounces. Grandparents of the new baby are Mr. and Mrs. David Cence of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rogge of Pacific Grove.

Eric's mother is the former Miss Eleanor Cence, eighth grade teacher at Sunset School before her marriage.

Birth Report From Hawaii

Daniel James of Los Angeles telephoned his mother, Mrs. D. L. James of Carmel Highlands, last week as soon as he received news from Honolulu of the birth on October 30 of Martha Vance Willard, his first grandchild, daughter of Ensign and Mrs. Daniel Willard (Barbara James).

Carmel reception committee for Martha was Mrs. Russell Williams and her daughter Honey, who accompanied Martha's grandmother, Mrs. Daniel James, and her aunt, Kathy James, to Hawaii several weeks ago.

Buckminsters To San Francisco

On Friday Brad Buckminster, last June Princeton graduate, heard of an insurance job in San Francisco, on Tuesday he was told the job was his and yesterday he began work. Next week his wife Charis, daughter Diana and son Brad, Jr., join him in the house which they have found in Presidio Heights. Going to San Francisco with them will be Miss Neida Thieret.

The Buckminsters have been occupying Mrs. Marie Short's home on Mission Street since they came to Carmel early in the summer. Carmel was formerly their home and both Brad and Charis were actively associated with peninsula musical life. Charis is a graduate of both Sunset and Carmel High Schools and met Brad when he was stationed at the Army Language School at the Presidio.

Reception For Picards

Professor and Mrs. Georges Picard (Beatrice Rea) whose marriage took place in August, were guests of honor at a reception on Saturday night given by Miss Eleanor Crouch, Mrs. Anna Kohner, Mrs. Rosetta Smith and Mrs. Sarah Sproull at Miss Crouch's home in Mission Fields. Professor Picard is a member of the faculty of the French department at the Army Language School and Mrs. Picard is an eighth grade teacher at Sunset School.

Invited to meet the Picards were teachers in the Carmel school system, parents, and friends who have worked in close association with Mrs. Picard during her years on Sunset School faculty.

Dr. Gilman At Fort Mason

He is assigned to the budget and costs division of the Bay Area Army Transportation Terminal Center, headquarters of the Army's Pacific shipping operations in the San Francisco area. Major Gilman served during World War II as a rail traffic officer at the San Francisco port of embarkation.

Travellers Return

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Brown drove into Carmel on Monday evening wondering why they went away for six weeks, although Mr. Brown remarked yesterday morning "when you go away you appreciate Carmel more when you come back."

The Browns first drove to Las Vegas to attend the National Congress of Motor Hotels (they are owners of the Village Inn) and then continued to Salt Lake, Denver and Des Moines and Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where they visited relatives. Mr. Brown also went fishing in the Minnesota lake country. "They said the fish were not biting," he reports, "but I certainly caught plenty."

"It was a wonderful trip," he continued, "and wonderful to see Carmel again."

SIGN APPROVALS

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON
Man's perfect, sinless nature as the spiritual child of God will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Scriptural readings is the following passage to be read from Genesis (1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

A correlative passage which refers to this record of creation will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (516:27-29): "To emphasize this momentous thought, it is repeated that God made man in His own image, to reflect the divine Spirit."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (112:4): "Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness."

Music On The Peninsula

By MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The Monterey County Symphony Orchestra opened its 1957-58 Season with one of the best performances yet given, in a program of interest for all. It was attended by perhaps the largest audience it has ever had, both in Salinas and Carmel. The personnel of the orchestra is now almost too large for the Sunset stage, for in the Dances by de Falla a double bass had to withdraw behind the curtain to make room for the harp which properly should be in the front, and this weakened its effectiveness.

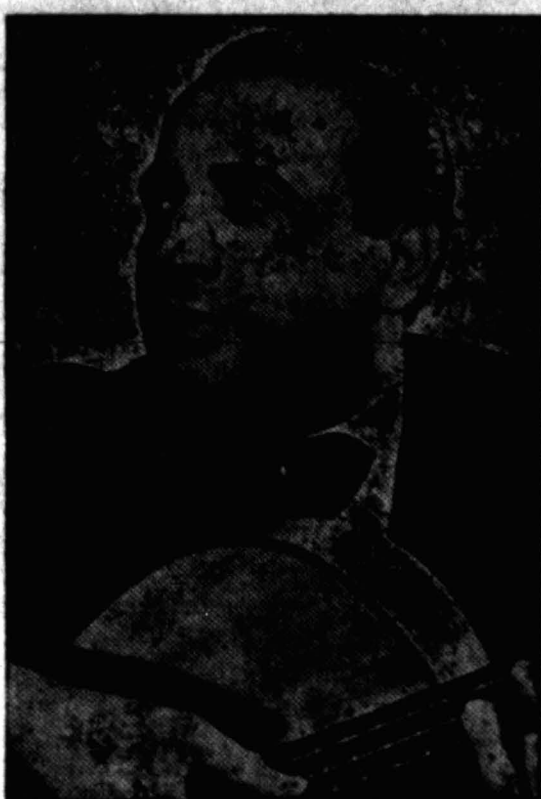

In spite of but one rehearsal per week (the major orchestras have many) the performance was virile from beginning to end, reflecting the devotion and exuberance of the players, and placing another feather in the cap of Conductor Gregory Millar who is clearly headed for a distinguished place among American conductors. He will conduct the Athens Orchestra in Greece this spring as a guest. Few realize the really hard work of preparation such direction entails with the conductor's ideal away ahead of some of the machinery that must be brought into structural focus before the finer modulation is achieved. Therefore, much praise and congratulation can be given the achievement of Monday; and though the program was unusually long, the audience wanted every note of it when Millar offered to leave off the de Falla, as it was late.

Opening with a tribute to Sir Edward Elgar's birth centennial this year, his Enigma Variations were given some strong playing. It is a difficult but most grateful work harmonically, and its fourteen variations, while built upon virtually only two themes, have each such distinct character as portraits of Elgar's friends that great variety is achieved in construction. Here, as author of the program notes, I would like to state that owing to limited space the notes were cut, leaving out the raison d'être for the name "Enigma"! Elgar said it was "a hidden theme that could accompany every variation" which Krehbiel theorized as the motto melody of Wagner's Parsifal, and which I stated could be regarded as Life's Enigma. Elgar was knighted as the greatest creative British musician since Purcell and is the forerunner of the many progressive composers of Britain today.

The Mozart Horn Concerto followed, with its melodious solo played by Joseph Axup, for which he received an ovation. His fine tone, phrasing and thoroughly musical concept re-established him as one of the most gifted local artists and an asset to the Orchestra Association. James Schwabacker, the San Francisco tenor, known so well to the Bach Festivals, was programmed for two Mozart Arias from the amusing Magic Flute and added one from Die Freischuetz. He prefaced his good operatic singing with spoken descriptions of their import and was rewarded with enthusiastic applause. Some of the Orchestra's best playing was in the Beethoven joyous Seventh Symphony and the Dances from The Three Corners Hat by de Falla, which, with their predominating dance rhythms carried off a program of upward achievement in the annals of our orchestra.

Responding to emphatic recalls, Gregory Millar acknowledged the part of the leaders and the whole orchestra, including the flutist Raymond Fabrizio, who had come on a last moment call to read the score. His work was outstanding in both The Magic Flute and the Dances. No one has done so much in the past three years for the development and interest in the best music on the Peninsula as Carlos Montoya, world famous flamenco guitarist now on his annual coast to coast tour, will be at the Sunset Auditorium, Carmel, November 16, at 8:30 o'clock. His program, under the local management of Mary Jane Smithback and Arline Turi, will feature gypsy rhythms from the fiestas and bodegas of Malaga, Granada, Sevilla, Cadiz, Huelva and Cordoba in Spain.

He comes to this area directly from recent sell-out recitals in New York at the Town Hall. The enthusiastic acclaim granted him by the press and the public at these concerts was so great that RCA Victor has signed him for future record albums. Prior to this signing, Mr. Montoya has recorded twelve different albums of flamenco rhythms for Remington and ABC Paramount Records, all of which has helped to win him world-wide success and a devoted public.

Mr. Millar who encourages the possibility of any local musician qualifying for appearance with the symphony. We are fortunate to have him among us. A good music student declared our orchestra better than that of Seattle from which he comes, and that orchestra is much older! We look forward to the next pair of concerts December 15 and 16 in Salinas and King Hall, Monterey.

The Women's Symphony Guild gave a reception for artists and guild and association members at the Carmel Art Association following the concert.

GRASS UP ON BALL FIELD

The grass is up on the new High School baseball field, and Art Holtzhauser mowed it for the first time this week.

"It looks wonderful," reports High School Principal Warren Edwards.

The grape-stake fence surrounding the field is finished and the backstop's in. Come spring the field will be in fine condition when "play ball" is the word on the High School campus.
